

Culminating Storytelling Experience

Prompt: What aspects of iTaukei (Indigenous Fijian) knowledge and/ or customs are you longing for in your life back home? Construct a written story that responds to this prompt. Your story will be shared during a community talanoa (storytelling) event.

Reflection Questions:

1. What experience here made you realize you were longing for this?
2. What iTaukei knowledge is embodied in your longing? Cite specific examples from the text.
3. In what tangible ways will you embody these new understandings in your life back home?
